

Sawajiri / Nagahama Campsite Rules & Regulations (draft)

※These are rules for the two campsites above, Sawajiri and Nagahama

※Tokyo Metropolitan Tako Bay Family Campground is managed separately.

For those intending to use Sawajiri and Nagahama campsites.

1. Kozushima offers two free camping spaces, the Sawajiri campsite and Nagahama campsite. Camping elsewhere is prohibited.
2. After arrival to the island please make sure to register for campsite usage at the Tourist Association desk. Your information given here is important information that could save many valuable lives during a disaster.
3. Advance reservations are unnecessary for both campsites. However, because of this we are not fully aware of the number of people using the camping grounds. Therefore, there are possibilities you will not be able to secure a camping space when the sites are full.
4. Camping spaces are limited so please have the heart to share when setting up your tents. Camping outside of the premises is prohibited. The setting up of tents is not a first-come-first-served basis.
5. Please bring your own tools, equipment and food. The campsites do not provide any of these. Charcoal and such are not sold at the campsites but can be found at the local shops.
6. The cooking area is a valuable shared space for all users. Please do not leave your trash and equipment around so that everyone can use the space pleasantly.
7. We are getting complaints about loudly played music at night and people dominating the cooking area. Especially for the people coming in large groups, please refrain from any of these actions that will make other campsite users feel unpleasant.
8. The usage of fire is prohibited other than used at the fireplaces provided in the cooking areas. In times of strong wind, all usage of fire is occasionally prohibited in order to prevent any fire breakouts or disasters.
9. Fireworks are strictly prohibited.
(There is a high possibility that the flames could leap to the lawns or surrounding woods, eventually starting a large fire disaster.)
10. Campfires pollute the beach and have the possibility to start a fire disaster. Therefore, is completely prohibited.
11. After use of any fire please make sure the fire is completely out.
12. Please separate your trash and dispose it in the stated garbage bins. Refer to the instruction manual attached 'How to dispose and separate household garbage'.

13. Reports of stolen objects have been made so please hold on to your valuables. We are not responsible.

14. Strictly oblige to the rules given for spear fishing. Spear fishing is prohibited in all beach areas besides Nagahama. Gear such as spearguns that are fired and leave the hand is completely prohibited according to the Tokyo Metropolitan Fishery Adjustment Rules. Poachers will be penalized.

15. Fish and shellfish peculiar to the island make their habitat in the waters of the beaches of the campsites. This sea life is a valuable resource supporting the primary industry of Kozushima. Therefore the fishing of these special species is completely prohibited. If caught capturing or eating these you will be penalized.

16. Public nuisances are prohibited.

17. There is no ambulance on the island so it will take some time for any emergency transportation to arrive on the site. Please confirm any safety instructions beforehand in case of an emergency.

18. Camping sites may be closed down if danger is expected due to typhoons, storms, etc. In this case you will have to evacuate the camping grounds and individual find a place to stay such as at the local inns. If a typhoon passes by any of the waters of Japan there is a high possibility you will not be able to swim in the beaches and waters. You may also find it difficult to travel as planned. Do not make any unreasonable judgments and we recommend that you check the weather and tide forecasts before deciding to make a trip to the island.

19. Long term stays are restricted up to two weeks. If you decide to stay longer than this you will need to re-register your stay at the Tourist Association. Depending on your behavior during your stay or the reason of extension there is a possibility we will decline your request.

20. These rules have been established hoping that the users accepting these rules, behaving with a sharing heart, can all experience a great time on the island and the campsites.

Users agreeing to these regulations, but fail to follow these rules and terribly disturb public morals will be asked to leave the campsites.
